Respect, Grace and Courage

Parents' Update - 7th November 2025

*"Respect for ourselves guides our morals; respect for others guides our manners."
Laurence Sterne*

What a great start to a new half term. The children have returned ready to learn and take on new challenges. Thank you, as always, for your support in helping them make such a smooth and happy return.

Our week began with our Year 1 and 2 children having an exciting adventure on their trip to Beaulieu Motor Museum. They loved exploring the fascinating collection of cars, motorcycles, and motor racing exhibits, and particularly enjoyed learning how transport has changed over time. The children's curiosity, excellent behaviour, and respectful attitude were noticed and praised by staff. A big thank you to the staff and parent helpers who made this memorable experience possible.

Next week, we look forward to welcoming you all in to school for our Parent Consultations.

These meetings are a valuable opportunity to celebrate your child's achievements and discuss their next steps in learning. We really value the partnership between home and school, and we appreciate you taking the time to meet with teachers to support your child's progress.

We will also be marking Interfaith Week across the federation next week. This special week gives us the chance to learn about and celebrate the many different faiths and beliefs that make up our wider community. Through stories, art, and discussion, the children will explore how respect, understanding, and kindness are shared values across all cultures and religions. As a school, we are proud of our commitment to diversity and inclusion, and Interfaith Week is a wonderful opportunity to appreciate the richness that our differences can bring.

As we head into the weekend, I encourage everyone, children and adults alike, to take a moment to think about how we can show respect at home and in our community. It might be a kind word, a patient ear, or a simple act of helpfulness, every gesture makes a difference.

Wishing you all a peaceful and happy weekend.
